

Client Agreement and Relationship Disclosure Brochure

Introduction

This client agreement and relationship disclosure brochure (the “Agreement”) contains the terms and conditions of your client account with Kilgour Williams Capital Incorporated (“KWC”). Please read this document carefully. This Agreement also contains important regulatory disclosures, definitions and explanations of aspects of your client account. If you have any questions, please contact your KWC representative. You agree to be bound by this Agreement in respect of your account with KWC and services performed by KWC relating thereto.

KWC is registered as Restricted Portfolio Manager, Investment Fund Manager and an Exempt Market Dealer (“EMD”) in accordance with applicable Canadian securities laws in Ontario. As an EMD, KWC sells securities that are exempt from the prospectus requirement pursuant to applicable securities laws in Canada and are not reviewed by a regulator such as a securities commission prior to their sale. These are referred to as “Exempt Securities”. Among the Exempt Securities it sells, KWC also sells Exempt Securities comprised of the securities offerings of Kilgour Williams Capital Incorporated, which are related entities (see “Related Party Disclosure”, below). KWC reviews any investment that it sells prior to it being offered to ensure that it meets prescribed regulatory requirements and reviews each purchase to ensure it is suitable for its investor clients.

About Your Account

Your KWC account allows you to purchase Exempt Securities approved by KWC.

As an EMD, we have an obligation to assess whether a purchase of an Exempt Security is suitable for you. The Know-Your-Client and Client Application Form (the “Application Form”) provided to you documents your willingness and ability to assume risk and helps us establish your identity and review your investment needs and objectives, your financial circumstances and your risk tolerance. You confirm that the information you provide us in the Application Form and all other information you provide us verbally, in writing, electronically or by any other means is true and complete. You agree to notify us of any change in your financial affairs, including any change in your needs, experience and investment objectives.

Clients with accounts held by one or more persons acknowledge and agree that the account(s) are joint accounts and every clause of this Agreement applies to each co-applicant jointly and severally.

In this Agreement and in the Application Form, the term “spouse” means any person who resides in the same house as you and to whom you are married, or any person who resides in the same home as you and with whom you are living in a conjugal relationship outside marriage.

Risks of Investing

As you are investing in Exempt Securities, they may have a greater level of risk than other investments and an investment in an Exempt Security is not guaranteed in any way. Only investors who do not require liquidity of their investments and who can afford a substantial impairment or loss of their entire investment should consider purchasing Exempt Securities.

Please also note that there is no market for the Exempt Securities offered by KWC and such Exempt Securities are subject to certain restrictions on re-sale. You may be unable to dispose of such Exempt Securities.

You have a responsibility to carefully consider the information contained in the applicable offering memorandum, subscription agreement and related documents which outline the characteristics and risks of the Exempt Security before deciding to invest. Specifically, without minimizing the importance of any section of the offering memorandum, you have the responsibility to review the section entitled “Risk Factors”. You have the responsibility to discuss with your KWC representative any aspect of the offering memorandum and related materials if it does not accord with your own investment objectives or tolerance for risk.

Investor’s Responsibility

Exempt Securities are sold according to the specific information contained in the offering memorandum and related documents associated with the offering. Certain additional disclosures may also be required. You agree to carefully review and consider the information and disclosures contained in the offering memorandum and related documents provided to you pertaining to each investment offered by KWC on behalf of its affiliates. You should pay particular attention to the investment objectives and risk characteristics for each investment you agree to make.

Risk of Borrowing Money to Buy Investments

Using borrowed money to finance the purchase of securities involves greater risk than a purchase using cash resources only. If you borrow money to purchase securities, your responsibility to repay the loan and pay interest as required by its terms remain the same even if the value of the securities purchased declines.

To what extent a leveraged purchase involves undue risk is a determination to be made by each purchaser on an individual case-by-case basis, and will vary depending on the circumstances of the purchaser and the securities purchased.

Money is, of course, also required to pay interest on the loan. Under these circumstances, investors who leverage their investment are advised to have adequate financial resources available both to pay interest, and also to reduce the loan if the borrowing arrangements require such a payment.

Related Party Disclosure

KWC occasionally brokers the distribution of Exempt Securities of certain affiliates of KWC, which are related and connected issuers to KWC. Please review the applicable offering memorandum for more information about the relationship between KWC and such related and connected issuers. We have not evaluated the securities offered by Kilgour Williams Capital Incorporated relative to other similar offerings from arm's length parties.
